

BULGARS OCCUPY SERB WAR CAPITAL

Secure Complete Control of Railway from Prahovo on the Danube

ARMIES EFFECT JUNCTION

Germans and Bulgarians Meet at Krivivir—Campaign Probably Will Move Faster

SENDING MORE ALLIED TROOPS

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The Bulgarians have occupied Nish, the Serbian war capital which gives them complete control of the railway from Prahovo on the Danube and thus opens a thru route for the central powers to Sofia and Constantinople.

Main Armies Effect Junction.

In addition the Bulgarian and German main armies have effected a junction at Krivivir, so that the campaign which has been somewhat slower than was expected, probably will move at a faster pace. Except in the southern part of Serbia the invasion is already gathering more headway and despite Serbian resistance the invading armies have all made considerable progress. In the south however, the allied forces appear to be too strong for the Bulgarians, who admit that they are faced by superior numbers. It is reported, however, thru the Serbian legation at Athens that the British, French and Serbians have inflicted a severe defeat on the Bulgarians at Javor, ten miles west of the Vardar river, where the French left wing joins the right of the Serbian southern army and that the Bulgarians are retreating toward Veles.

Send More Troops From Saloniki.

More allied troops are being sent from Saloniki to the scene of the fighting in the hope that they will be able by the capture of Veles to compel the Bulgarians who advanced west of Uskup to retire and clear the Saloniki-Mitrovitz railway, so that assistance can be sent to the Serbian northern army.

All assistance that reaches the Serbians apparently must be sent by the British and French, for, despite the defeat of the Zaimis government and the triumph of Venizelos in the Greek chamber, there is no evidence that Greece intends to change her policy. It was reported this morning that M. Zaimis had undertaken to form a new cabinet but this lacks confirmation as despatches from Athens are being much delayed.

No News From Russ Expedition.

There is also lack of news concerning the Russian expedition which was reported early in the week on the Roumanian frontier, while Roumania, like Greece, is maintaining her neutrality in the face of demonstrations in the country for intervention. Russia, however, is preventing the Austro-Germans from despatching any additional troops from her front to the Balkans. The Russian armies have successfully countered Field Marshal von Hindenburg's efforts to reach Riga from the west and are attacking both west and south of Dvinsk and on the Sty and Strpa rivers. In the Dvinsk sectors the Russians are advancing a little westward but on the two southern rivers there is no change in the positions, the armies of neither side seemingly being able to make any progress, although they are launching heavy attacks.

Little Ground Changes Hands.

In the western zone the Germans continue their attacks against the new French positions in Champagne, but here likewise, little ground is changing hands.

There is evidence of renewed activity in Gallipoli and the impression prevails that another big attempt will be made to open the strait before German ammunition reaches the Turks.

AN ANNOYING MISTAKE.

During the rush of trade yesterday a lady tried on a skirt belonging to a black chuddah silk suit in Herman's store and while looking at some other goods absent mindedly walked away with the valuable article and it wasn't missed until evening. No doubt the lady will return the skirt as soon as she discovers the error but it is annoying as it belonged to a $38.50 suit and the coat is well nigh worthless without the skirt.

Mrs. Herman said some time ago a lady stepped into their store and in some manner betrayed the fact that she had on a skirt belonging to another merchant in the city and which she had worn away not meaning to take it unlawfully. She was much mortified when the fact was called to her attention and hastened back to the merchant and delivered him his property.

NEGRO IS KILLED IN BATTLE WITH POSSE

ONE FUGITIVE IS WOUNDED AND THIRD ESCAPES

Dead Man is Believed to be Tramp
Who Shot Wabash Conductor
Near Decatur, Where Railroad Man Put Him Off the Train.

Decatur, Ill., Nov. 6.—In a pitched battle between a Christian county posse and three negroes at two o'clock this afternoon, one of them was killed, another wounded and the third escaped. The dead man is believed to be the tramp who Friday night shot Conductor Guy Winters, of Decatur, on a Wabash freight train at Blue Mound, southwest of Decatur, where Winters put him off the train.

Winters was seriously injured but probably will recover.

Eight shots were fired at the party of ten men, who, with the assistance of Springfield bloodhounds, were running down the fugitives. None of the shots took effect but as soon as they located the fugitives, the posse fired a volley, instantly killing one. The other one with him threw up his hands and surrendered. He was shot twice in the left arm.

A posse searching for the negroes located them along the Wabash right-of-way shortly after daylight and they made a dash for the timber firing several shots at Sheriff Barnes and Deputy Davis.

Reinforcements were called for and several automobiles were attracted to the locality, surrounding the woods.

The captured negro was taken to Taylorville and lodged in jail. Talk of mob violence subsided with the death of one of the men and no further trouble is anticipated. The captured man gave his name as Henry Johnson, St. Louis and said that he knew his companion only by his nickname "Zack".

THIRTEEN ARE DEAD IN NEW YORK FIRE

Thirteen Missing, Eight of Them Girls, Are Believed to Have Lost Lives

FORTY SERIOUSLY HURT

Many of Injured in Hospitals
Are Expected to Die—Score
More or Less Seriously Burned

BUILDING IS DESTROYED

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Thirteen men and girls are known to have lost their lives and thirteen others, eight of them girls, are missing, believed to be dead, as the result of the fire which this afternoon destroyed an old four story brick and wooden factory building in the Williamsburg section of Brooklyn.

Of the forty injured in hospitals many are expected to die and a score more were less seriously burned and bruised.

Many Dismissed Before Fire.

The building was occupied by a candy manufacturing concern and three firms manufacture clothing, whose employees normally totalled 300 but more than a third had been dismissed before the fire started, for a Saturday half holiday.

The flames which were discovered shortly before two o'clock by a girl employee of the candy factory which occupied the ground floor and basement, spread rapidly and soon were roaring up the elevator shaft around which wound the main stairway. The flames mushroomed from the elevator shaft into the top floor and scarcely had the first streams of water entered the building than the roof collapsed. The other floors fell soon after. Escape for most of the employees in the building by stairs and elevator was impossible.

The only escape became jammed. The flames drove the frightened men and women to the windows and forced them to jump. Of the eleven bodies recovered from the ruins six were taken from the fire escape and four were found hanging out of windows, charred beyond recognition. Several of these were girls, burned to death in the sight of a great crowd of helpless spectators.

Several Leap From Windows.

There was a second stairway in the rear of the building and some of the entrapped persons escaped by that but before the firemen arrived men and women were leaping from the windows.

Today's disaster was the worst factory fire in New York since the Triangle Waist company was burned out several years ago with a loss of 148 lives.

No one could be found tonight to tell how the fire started. The building is now nothing but a tottering shell of brick walls, inclosing smoking ruins and probably the bodies of the missing.

Not until the list of employees in the building has been checked up and the ruins searched were the police willing to believe that the death list exceed 25. One of the victims taken to the hospital, a man, died soon after from a fractured skull.

Coroner Starts Investigation.

Coroner Wagner started an immediate investigation of the cause of the disaster and other city officials were soon on the scene for the same purpose. They were able, however, to gain little information tonight, other than that the fire appeared to have originated in the Diamond Candy factory, probably in the basement where the cooking was done.

The loss of life was chiefly among the employees of the Essex Shirt company and the B. L. W. Tailoring company.

After a preliminary investigation by the authorities tonight Mrs. Edward L. Diamond, owner of the building and her husband were arrested on a charge of criminal negligence and remanded to jail without bail.

Mr. Diamond said he was in the building at the time of the fire, but claimed ignorance as to the cause.

One additional body, that of a man was found in the ruins, bringing the total known victims up to thirteen.

IRISHMEN SEEK TO LEAVE ENGLAND

Nine Hundred Are Refused Passage to New York on Saxonia

STORMY ENCOUNTERS

Two Are Knocked Down By Women—Others Set Upon and Decorated With White Feather

200 LEAVE GLASGOW

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 6.—Nine hundred Irishmen, who intended to sail for New York today on the Cunard line steamship Saxonia were prevented by the steamship company from taking passage. The company declined to permit them to sail after three had been in several stormy encounters with street crowds, which took the view that abed-bodied men should not be permitted to evade liability to military service in this manner.

The arrival of the Irishmen in Liverpool drew a crowd outside the steamship offices. Two Irishmen were knocked down by women. Others were set upon and decorated with white feathers.

"Ignoring cries of 'cowards!' 'traitors!' and refusing to listen to the appeals of a recruiting sergeant, the Irishmen marched to the dock. When they arrived there the Saxonia's firemen, witnessing the street encounters and catching the spirit of the crowd, informed the steamship company they would not leave with the Saxonia if the Irishmen were permitted to sail.

Besiege Passport Department.

London, Nov. 6.—Daily increasing crowds of youths of military age are besieging the passport department of the foreign office seeking permits which they hope will enable them to escape the conscription they anticipate and fear.

Most of them apparently have discovered relatives in America and elsewhere, whom they are obliged to visit. The hush has been so great since Lord Derby's recruiting scheme was promulgated that in the last three days more than 300 applicants of military age have been put back while the authorities decide how to deal with the situation.

The Saturday Review, referring to the crowds of Irish emigrants, demands a strict inquiry as to where the money comes from to pay the fares of these men who are of the poorer classes and the additional $50 which they must have on landing in the United States.

Two Hundred Leave Glasgow.

Glasgow, Nov. 6.—About two hundred Irishmen, eligible for military service, sailed today by the Anchor line steamship California for New York. BRING FINANCIAL SITUATIONS TO FOCUS

COURT DECISIONS TIE UP ILLINOIS AND CHICAGO MONEY

Russel States Treasury Will Be Empty By April—Dunne Announces There Is No Money Available for Expense of an Extra Session.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Financial situations in both state and municipal governments were brought to a focus by two supreme court decisions according to lawyers today. The decisions, one of which ties the state purse with approximately $2,000,000 and the other holds up Chicago appropriations of $504,452.80, will necessitate an extra-ordinary session of the legislature, it was said.

States Treasurer Andrew Russel said the state treasury would be empty by April and Gov. Dunne announced today at Springfield that there was no money available for the expenses of an extra session. The state funds were tied up in a ruling last night upholding a decision in a suit of John B. Fergus of Chicago holding invalid appropriations of approximately $2,000,000 of the last legislature. The city's funds are held back in a decision of the city treasurer that appropriations by the city council since the last annual budget were illegal.

An agreement to rush to trial three additional suits involving appropriations of $1,500,000, was reached today by P. J. Lucey, attorney general and F. S. Munro, attorney, as a result of the supreme court upholding suits by J. B. Fergus attacking special appropriations. The three suits are now pending. They are injunction petitions involving deficiency appropriations, private relief claims and committee expense appropriations and committee expense appropriations. This agreement to expedite these trials will cause the special session of the legislature necessitated by yesterday's ruling to be delayed until the first of January by which time the decision on the pending suits is expected.

Protests Against the Presence in Mexico of

CARRANZA NAMES DIPLOMAT

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Nov. 6.—General Alvaro Obregon, the Mexican military chief who arrived at Agua Prieta to put under way a campaign against Francisco Villa, took opportunity in a conference with General Frederick Funston of the United States army today to protest against the presence in Mexico of George C. Carothers, an agent of the American state department.

Carothers, according to a statement made by General Obregon tonight, is regarded by Mexicans as an active agent of General Villa.

Carothers, for a long time represented the state department at the headquarters of General Villa. General Obregon declared his presence in Mexico was a menace to the military interests of Carranza.

Americans Reach Naco.

Naco, Ariz., Nov. 6.—Four Americans released at Villavieja yesterday by General Villa after having been condemned to death on three separate occasions, arrived on American soil here today and narrated their experiences as Red Cross workers among Villa's wounded on the battlefield of Agua Prieta. The party consisted of Dr. R. H. Thigpen, Dr. Charles P. Miller, and two chauffeurs, Al Wilson and J. D. Pylant. The two physicians took to their beds on their arrival, as a result of their experiences.

General Villa flew into a rage, Dr. Thigpen said, when he learned that the Americans could not guarantee the passage of his wounded over American territory to Juarez. "Treat the Americans as they treat us," he is quoted as having said to his aide. "Do as you please. Turn the artillery on Douglas and put these men in front of the infantry."

Intercession by General Rafael Naive, coupled with fear of retaliation upon families of Villa and his subordinates in the United States was responsible for the safety of the Americans, Dr. Thigpen said.

Mr. Mann Out of Race.

Congressman James R. Mann of Chicago can no longer be ranked as a presidential possibility for he has eliminated himself from the race. In a speech made before the Hamilton club in Chicago Mr. Mann declared in favor of Elihu Root for the presidency and at the same time said that while some of his friends had been kind enough to mention his name in connection with that of the presidency, that he had at no time given the matter serious consideration. One sentence in Mr. Mann's speech warned Republicans not to imagine that they had any easy time, the speaker going on to say that the party "cannot win with a short stop or a two-spot." This figurative language was taken by some of the friends of Senator Sherman as applying to him and they have quickly come to his support and condemned Mr. Mann for making any slighting reference to the senator from Illinois, whose record in the upper house has been such as to reflect credit upon the state and whose candidacy is receiving more favorable consideration both in the east and the states of the central west.

The action of the supreme court in sustaining the Sangamon county circuit court whereby an injunction was granted prohibiting the state treasurer from paying out certain funds alleged to have been appropriated by the legislature has necessitated the calling of a special session of legislature. This will mean some additional expense to the state and the delay incident to having the funds tied up has meant inconvenience to various employes of the state. It is likely, however, that enough good will result from the proceeding to justify the statement that the result of the suit as a whole has been beneficial. It certainly will have the result of calling attention in a very forcible way to some evil practices which have grown up in the legislature with reference to the expenditure of funds. It seems that in the past it has sometimes been the custom for legislative committees to direct the expenditure of moneys appropriated by the legislature after the adjournment. The decision just made makes it very clear that this practice is illegal. If the suit has emphasized in any way how rapidly state government expenses have increased during recent years another good result has also been achieved.

Making Church Popular.

A minister who addressed an assemblage in Milwaukee recently came out squarely in opposition to the present-day method of making the church popular and sermons interesting. This minister said that there is no use trying to make sermons and prayer meetings as interesting as melodrama or as amusing as Charles Chaplin—that they were not intended to be so and if they approached that level that they did not meet the purposes on which they are planned. Many ministers today feel that changing conditions of popular thought and custom demand changes in the church service and believe that the addition of certain attractions not formerly thought necessary are really needed now if the interest and attention of young people is attracted and held. But it is true that this tendency may be overdone and a church service become so much a matter of mere entertainment that the service loses the dignity and impression of the older days. But whether one agrees or not with this minister's opinion on this subject, his statement will be generally accepted that "a heathen dropped into New York and saw a church with a seating capacity of 1,000 attended by about 200, and dark six days a week, he would never go back with one impression that the United States was a Christian nation."

One of the most deserved criticisms against the Protestant churches of today is that so many of them are content to have the churches open one day and possibly one or two nights a week, seeming to fail to realize that the church influence would be greatly increased if the doors were opened more frequently for the admittance of members or strangers.

All Seek the Way.

Telegraphic dispatches give only five or six lines to an announcement of great importance. It is that some of the Swedish provincial journals say that the Swedish government will soon convene a peace congress at the Hague, the information thus given out being based on a dispatch from Copenhagen. Sweden is a small country by comparison with some of those now engaged in the great struggle for supremacy, but it would not be at all contradictory to history if this country should be able to take the initial steps that would pave the way to a common understanding which would bring peace. This seems especially within the range of possibility when one remembers that certainly every nation now engaged in the war and every nation at peace is devoutly wishing that the war might end and that some leader or some nation might rise up and point the way that peace might be accomplished.

The Biased Viewpoint.

The Chicago Post in a cartoon depicts in a few brief lines the unreasonableness of some of the statements which emanate from England and Germany. One side of the picture shows a helmeted German soldier reading with consternation the headlines of a document which shows the new food laws calculated to conserve Germany's supplies and the order for meatless days. Above is the quotation, "England's blockade is a failure. We've got plenty of food". At the other side of the picture John Bull is represented with his countenance badly scarred and bruised and his clothing in general disarray, while above are the lines, "Those Zeppelin raids are a joke—haven't hurt us a bit".

Rural Carriers Do Great Work.

Rural mail carriers from Morgan county and adjoining territory met in Jacksonville last night socially and incidentally to talk over matters pertaining to their mutual welfare. The rural carriers of this country are engaged in a most important work and on them depends some of the large things related to the betterment of country life conditions.

There was a time when in spite of the pleasures of farm life, that the inconveniences outweighed many of these advantages. The establishment of the rural mail service did more than any other thing to bring the country and the city into daily contact and was the most important factor in the more recent development of the comforts of farm life. The mail service means more than the mere delivery of letters and papers to the residents of the country, for the mail service is closely related to other betterments. It is a requirement of the department that country roads shall be kept in a passable condition if the service is maintained, and at any time that the roads are not in passable condition the rural carrier is excused from the service.

This requirement has had a large effect in improving country road conditions and road conditions are closely related with still other improvements, as well as with the transportation cost of farm products. The rural carriers belong to a great army of loyal workers. They

Rippling Rhymes

By WALT MASON

THE MAYFLOWER.

I much admire that stately ship
In which our fathers made the trip
From England's stormy shore; unless

I've badly crossed my wires, there must have been ten thousand sires upon its decks, or more. It must have been a rubber craft,
so it would stretch,
both fore and aft,
to hold so many men; the pilgrim fathers were so thick the captain couldn't heave a brick, but he'd hit eight or ten. One hundred sailed, the record claims, and some were children, some were dames, one hundred made the trip; yet there are countless families whose bold ancestors crossed the seas, on that elastic ship. I've traveled east. I've traveled west; wherever I have been a guest, the host would proudly say,

"My grandfathers' grandfathers' grandfathers' dad sailed in the Mayflower, when a lad, to Massachusetts Bay." I've stopped at time in swell hotels, where all the haughty gents and belles looked on me as a wreck, because I am the only skate whose fathers didn't pile their freight upon the Mayflower's deck. My father's father's father's sire a passage tried to book by wire ere telegraphs were known; and thus he missed that famous ship, and didn't see the skipper skip, and I am left alone.

are not heroes but they are entitled to credit for the valuable service they perform to the country communities and the cities which they bring in touch with those communities. The work of a rural carrier is a man's job, for in all cases the routes are long and to give the service during all kinds of winter and summer weather means that the carrier must have not only faithfulness but a hardy constitution and be able to battle with the wind and weather.

THE SUM TOTAL OF CRUELTY

The World's Work for November presents two notable articles with reference to the war. One is on "The Cost of Unpreparedness", and the other "The Weapons of This War". Aside from the subject matter of these two articles, the illustrations are especially noteworthy and make clear in a very decided way the changes which have taken place in the last hundred years or more in warfare.

The first picture represents the battle of Bunker Hill, June 17, 1775, when the raw and untrained American troops were forced to retire from a well fortified position because of the attack of trained troops. The second picture depicts the British victory on Long Island, Aug. 27, 1776, when Washington met with a defeat and the loss of New York because he was able to oppose a force of 16,000 British soldiers with but 8,000 men. Still another picture is that of the battle of Princeton, Jan. 3, 1777. This battle resulted in an American victory, a crucial point of the Revolution, but the fruits were lost because there was no military system to keep the army supplied with men and munitions when needed.

Others in this gallery of historic scenes are the defeat of Montgomery at Quebec, March 21, 1775; Washington at Valley Forge; Washington at Yorktown; the battle of Lund's Lane, July 25, 1814; the first battle of Bull Run, Aug. 29-30, 1862; Antietam, Sept. 17, 1862; Pickett's Charge at Gettysburg; the decisive victory at Gettysburg; the U. S. Steamer Constitution capturing the Guerriere. It is related that the "Constitution" won because it had greater speed and development than any other ship of its time. These qualities are possessed by battle cruisers today, a type of vessel which does not exist in the present U. S. navy.

In the article on the weapons of today the pictures show some of the great guns which are playing an important part in the European war and still smaller guns which have been designed especially to meet the new needs of warfare. One of these is a device for breaking thru wire entanglements, and several pictures indicate how barbed wire is being used very effectively for barricading work. While these historic pictures present a very strong argument in favor of preparedness and in support of the theory that the advantage in battle is usually measured by the preparedness of the combatants, some of the pictures of weapons bring to thought in a new way the awfulness of the present conflict, pointing out as they do how the war lords in devising means for the destruction of the enemy's troops, have returned to mediaeval customs.

Hand grenades were missiles popular in the seventeenth century; were discarded in the nineteenth century, and have been revived in the twentieth and used largely in the great war. The bombs, the helmets, the steel breastplates now worn by these modern soldiers are patent on mediaeval models. The German "Flammenwerfer" utilizes almost exactly the same ingredients as the Greeks used in their "Greek fire" in defense of Constantinople in 1473. The purpose of the modern German asphyxiating gas and the mediaeval Chinese "stink-pots" is the same—to confuse and overpower the enemies so that an attack can be made upon them before they can recover.

All of these ancient but modern methods of murder by wholesale are expressed in pictures in the article mentioned, and no one can read the pages without being impressed anew with the horrors of warfare of today. We have been in thought inclined to the idea that the cruelties of warfare have been greatly softened, but the real fact stares us in the face that modern warfare is really the sum total of the cruelty of all the ages.

RURAL MAIL CARRIERS PRAISED FOR SERVICE

BANQUET SATURDAY NIGHT A SUCCESSFUL EVENT.

Value of Co-operative Work for Bettering the Service is Emphasized—Speaker Declared That Good Roads and Other Advances Have Come Largely Because of Country Mail Service.

Under the auspices of the district rural carriers' association a banquet was given Saturday night at the Peacock Inn. Several postmasters, one postmistress, and a large number of carriers and a few guests made up a company of seventy-five, that spent an enjoyable and profitable evening. One of the carriers who is a minister of the gospel was called upon to say grace, another who has musical ability sang a solo, an orchestra made almost wholly of postal employees gave a program of musical numbers and a half dozen or more of the carriers took part in speaking program. Thus was given ample proof that the talents and abilities of the postal department employees are by no means limited to the usual service which they so faithfully perform.

The district association of rural carriers was organized some time ago and meetings are held at intervals. At these sessions matters pertaining to the betterment of the service and for the mutual interest of the postal employees are discussed. But the gathering last night was purely of a social character. Alfred Leake who is president of the association presided and served as toastmaster. He called on Rev. M. M. Hughes a carrier on rural route No. 4 Virginia to say grace and afterward the banquet was served. At the intervals during the evening an orchestra under the direction of John Kearns furnished a number of excellent musical selections. The other musicians were: Lee Skinner, E. D. Herald, A. J. Donovan, George Stoldt and Wilbert Hauck.

After Mr. Leake as toastmaster had expressed a few words of welcome he called upon Secretary Herman Ellis for a number of announcements of special interest to the members of the carriers association. Then various speakers were introduced and made brief remarks, the number including Mayor H. J. Rodgers; Carl H. Weber, secretary of the chamber of commerce, Carl Richards of the Jacksonville postoffice, Former Postmaster John J. Reeve, Postmaster R. I. Dunlap, Postmaster W. M. Cannedy, Greenfield; Postmaster J. H. Fuller, Murrayville; Assistant Postmaster T. C. Hill, Winchester; W. S. Camp, J. W. Walton, H. D. Atkins, Frank Bourn, L. B. Turner, W. E. Robbins, Earl Nelson, J. B. Siebert, T. B. Reeve and others.

One of the pleasing features of the occasion was the informality with which the speaking program was carried out. Only a very few of those called upon had been notified that they would be expected to make remarks. Nearly all of the speakers offered some suggestion on the value of cooperative work, mentioning that only by this means can the service be improved or the carriers association measure up to its greatest possibilities. The great impetus given the good roads movement as results of the establishment of rural mail service was emphasized in various ways.

The First Route.

Mayor Rodgers recalled that the first rural route established was out of Auburn in Sangamon county and the experiment was watched with great interest and also grave doubts. Now the rural service is a necessity and has done much to obliterate the lines between the city and the country. The mayor spoke of the importance of rural service as related to country life and said that the coming of the carrier each day meant joy or sorrow, profits or loss to the rural route patrons and at the coming of the carrier was now awaited as an important incident of each day's life. Mr. Rodgers also spoke of the influence that rural service had on the good roads movement.

Secretary Carl Weber of the Chamber of Commerce spoke of the great service given to the country communities by the carriers and the uniform faithfulness that characterizes the service. Mr. Weber then went on to say that the success of rural service was due largely to the spirit of co-operation manifested by the carriers and he then referred to the barge picnic recently given in Jacksonville which the rural carriers had aided so materially by distributing tickets addressed to all route patrons boxes. Mention was made of the state convention of carriers which is to be held here next spring and Mr. Weber assured his auditors that the business men of the city would do everything possible to aid in making the convention a success.

Carl Richards who attend a national convention of railway mail clerks in Los Angeles, last summer told of the many courtesies extended to the visitors by the citizens of California. There postoffice clerks, rural carriers and railway postoffice employees work in great harmony and the results are correspondingly beneficial. Mr. Richards spoke of the asphaltum road which extends from San Diego to San Francisco a distance of 400 miles and said that rural mail service had been a large factor in the development of the good roads movement in that state where $18,000,000 had been appropriated for the purpose.

An Efficiency Basis.

Former Postmaster John J. Reeve said that during his experience of eight years in the postal department he had come to know some of the joys and sorrows of the rural carriers. He said that the organization of postal employees had been beneficial to the service and that he thoroughly believed that organization of workers in all lines had been helpful to the country. Mr. Reeve said that result of organized effort should be improved service. That the people would appreciate the service and would see to it that the men who made the service possible received their reward. The speaker referred to the early opposition of merchants in the small towns to rural service and said that time had shown the benefit of the service to both farmers and merchants. Mr. Reeve said that rural service has been a wonderful thing to the farming communities but that it is in its early stages of development and prophesied that within the next ten or fifteen years some material improvements and betterments would take place. He hoped for the time when the whole department will be taken out of politics and operated only on the basis of efficiency.

Postmaster Dunlap said that the banquet of the carriers was the climax of a very busy and successful week in Jacksonville. He commented on the good fellowship and informality that characterized the occasion and said that such gatherings contributed largely to the good of the service and to the pleasant relationship between those in the various departments of the postal service. Mr. Dunlap referred to the loyalty shown by one of the Jacksonville carriers on a very rainy day last summer. There had been a great storm and this carrier's horse was pulled beneath the waters of a stream which he attempted to cross. But intent on seeing that those along his route received their mail, this carrier borrowed a horse from a neighboring farm and mounting it proceeded to cover his route. The incident was mentioned as being characteristic of the loyal service rendered by carriers. Mr. Dunlap referred to the coming state meeting of carriers here and said that at least 800 delegates would attend and that the convention would rival anything of the kind ever held here.

Many Made Brief Remarks.

Mrs. Alice Anderson, postmistress at Chapin, was next called upon and replied that she only wished to express her pleasure at being present. Postmaster Cannedy of Greenfield said that his desire to attend was evidenced by the fact that when he arrived at home again a journey of 100 miles in a Ford would have been recorded. Postmaster Fuller of Murrayville said that he had not been in the service long enough to justify much of a speech but that he thoroughly believed in efficiency and that organized effort only would bring this to pass. Assistant Postmaster Hill of Winchester also spoke of the value of co-operative effort and recorded incidents of faithfulness of rural carriers in the face of great difficulties.

Frank Bourn spoke briefly and then L. B. Turner of the city carriers gave assurance of their support in arranging for the convention next spring. Mr. Robbins of Greenfield said that he and his associates from Green county felt well repaid for their trip and Earl Nelson of Winchester whose vocal solo earlier in the session had greatly pleased the company, spoke of some of the joys and troubles which rural carriers must meet. John Siebert who was connected with the local office when the rural carriers service was first established and referred to those earlier days. Several others of those present spoke briefly and it was nearly 11 o'clock when President Leake declared the gathering at an end.

Some Topics of the Farm

Albert Curry, who is associated with his father, A. A. Curry, in the management of their large farming interests in the Pisgah neighborhood, said yesterday that they now have seven men at work shucking corn. They have 360 acres of corn and tests made in various fields indicate that the average yield will be 70 or 80 bushels to the acre. As a result the crop will be the largest for a great many years. Part of this corn will be sold and part will be fed to stock. While Curry & Son conduct an extensive cattle business they do not feed a great deal of grain, as they have found the system of roughing cattle thru and then fattening them largely on pasture has proved the most satisfactory.

Robert Allen of the Riggston neighborhood has recently finished threshing the wheat from 80 acres. The total yield was about 1,860 bushels, or an average of 24 bushels to the acre. Mr. Allen has not sold the grain yet and may store it for a time. A part of his wheat is of the hard variety and grades No. 2, and under the present unusual market conditions he has been offered 5c a bushel less for this wheat than he has for his soft wheat. Usually conditions are just the opposite and a hard wheat of the No. 2 grade would command a considerably higher price than the soft wheat.

A condition somewhat like this prevails in the corn market. Ordinarily white corn sells at a cent or two a bushel higher than yellow corn, but this season the situation is reversed. Grain men say that the reason is because white corn is usually purchased for export trade but that this year on account of the war that there is little or no export demand for corn and as it is not considered quite the equal of yellow corn for feeding purposes or for other domestic uses, that the changed price conditions have resulted.

Thomas D. Irlam of the Woodson neighborhood, who was in the city Saturday, was talking about the corn crop and said that the large yield which is certain in every part of the county will be of great aid to the farmers. He said that the partial failure of the crops for the last two or three years had put some farmers in a bad financial way and the promise of a good crop at a good price this year makes it certain that they will be able to recover from former losses and with some surplus beside. Mr. Irlam said that a good many farmers are willing to sell at a 50c price is offered, while most of them have declined to sell for 47 or 48c.

This statement made him recall the time some years ago when he had seven pens of corn containing a total of about 2,500 bushels. His tenant told him that the elevator was paying 50c a bushel and Mr. Irlam told the man to haul in a load and sell the crop. This was done the day following, but the market had dropped to 49c and the man came back and reported that he had not sold because he didn't know what Mr. Irlam's wishes would be. The next day the market dropped further and Mr. Irlam continued to hold his corn and kept it until the next year, when ruinous prices prevailed and he finally sold it at 18c a bushel. Beside this price shrinkage there was a great deal of loss because of much of the corn having been damaged.

A local elevator man explained yesterday that one reason that lower prices are offered for hard wheat than soft in this locality is that there was so much inferior wheat on account of rainy weather that the exporters have been buying in the northwest. As a result wheat from this locality has been going south where there is a better demand for soft wheat than hard. In the south the soft wheat is preferred for the particular kind of bread and pastry preferred there. For this same reason the St. Louis market has for some time been better for wheat than the Chicago market, as the freight rate from that point to the south is lower than from Chicago.

The price of corn during the past week has advanced several stages and elevators were paying yesterday 45 and 50c. The market closed at 60 1-8c and most elevator men figure a difference of 10c between the price here and in Chicago. Other elevator men figure a less sum, and on that basis they could have offered for December corn here Saturday 51c or 52c. A man who is well posted in the grain business yesterday predicted that there will be still higher prices for corn and gave as a basis for this opinion the statement that corn by a new process is now being used in the manufacture of smokeless powder. If this be true, regardless of the enormous corn crop this year, the price is likely to show continued strength and to go to a higher level rather than to a lower one.

George Sturdy, who lives on rural route 2, does not believe that corn is ready for culling yet. He has gathered some but only for immediate use for feeding the stock on his place. It is his expectation to feed all of his crop to hogs and cows he now has on the place.

Henry DeFreitas, who lives on the Crabtree farm two miles northwest of Jacksonville, said Saturday that rain is badly needed now in the farming community. Roads are very dusty and a good rain would also be an aid to pasture lands. While corn shucking can proceed as soon as the crop is matured, it will be practically impossible to husk any corn out of the shock until after a rain. This work of course could be done, but it is so much slower when corn is dry and the shocks stick closely to the ears, that men who shuck corn by the bushel are not willing to undertake the work until after a rain has come.

J. B. Corrington of the vicinity of Alexander is one of the successful and long time feeders of Morgan county. He said yesterday that for 33 years he had been buying steers and feeding them for the market but had decided to take a new departure. He went to St. Louis and bought seventy cows, fifteen of them Polls and some grade Short Horns, about half of them to calve this fall. He said he meant to let the calves run with the cows till naturally weaned and then keep them as long as it seemed likely to pay; one or two years. He is making this as an experiment and thinks it will pay. In the winter he feeds his calves silage and corn and cob ground which he regards as the best ration. He thinks he will try this venture anyway and feels that it will pay better than to buy feeders at present prices. He regards the market prices of feeders at the chief stations absurdly high and really prohibitory for a wise feeder.

Cattle Feeding Plant in Process of Erection.

The Department of Animal Husbandry of the University of Illinois, has begun the construction of a feed storage barn and cattle feeding plant. This equipment will replace the old feeding barns and sheds which are to be removed for the extension of the military drill grounds.

The new plant is located on the South Farm between the sheep barn and the large hog house. When completed this building will be 375 feet long. The main part is 52 feet wide and over 50 feet high, having a storage capacity of over 400 tons of hay, 18,000 bushels of small grain and 7,000 bushels of ear corn.

Joining the main part of the building is the experimental sheds which open to the south. This shed is 250 feet long and 26 feet deep and is divided into 7 parts each of which opens into a paved lot, 30 by 36 feet. The maximum capacity of the plant will be 200 head of mature cattle.

North of the main part of the building will be erected a battery of four silos, each 16x60 feet with total capacity of nearly 1,000 tons. One of these silos is already completed and the second is under construction and will be finished this fall.

The plant will be equipped with the latest modern machinery for the preparation and handling of various feeds. It is hoped that the entire plant will be completed, ready for use, early next year.

There is always something to learn about fruit trees and apples are among our best friends. Prof. T. P. Carter of the high school, says iron rust was recommended to him as a good thing to have about apple trees when set out and he accordingly took some baling wire and buried it about some young trees with very beneficial results. It seems to supply a material craved by the trees and affords them much benefit and it is an article which generally can be had for the asking.

W. H. Moseley residing east of the city is one of the successful farmers of the county. He says he is trying a new venture this year and expects good results. He went to Kansas City and bought 28 cows to calve about the present time. They were principally short horns and red Polls. He will cross them hereafter with a black, thoroughbred Poll, let the calves run with the mothers till naturally weaned, about six months, and then may sell or fatten the calves for baby beef. He thinks the time has come when such feeding and rearing will pay very well especially when a man has barren land, that is the cheaper grade not black prairie. Calves and young stock sell very well at the present time and he thinks there will be money in the venture.

Jerome Culp of Woodson sees money in feeding sheep if a man has proper conditions. About the middle of September he went to Omaha and bought two loads, 245 spring lambs at $8.50 a hundred. They were Cotswold and Shropshire by a Merno buck and very likely animals. Two of them were in the window during the special display of T. M. Tomlinson. He will keep them but a short time longer and then ship them either to St. Louis or Chicago. He expects to get about 9 cents for them at least. He has meadow grass for them and says they must have short grass in order to do any good; long blue grass, the delight of a steer would do them but little good. He gives them a little corn but not much. He says if he gets his money back for the lambs he is well pleased as they fertilize land on which they run even a short time. He has a field thus pastured and this year took from it forty bushels of wheat to the acre and lost at least ten more by storms lodging the grain so it couldn't be saved. He says if the straw had stood up straight the yield would have easily been fifty bushels to the acre.

They expect to be here about two weeks.

Mrs. G. Bailey of Virginia was a shopper in the city yesterday.

A TINKLING "KEYNOTE."

Is it beyond the power of Woodrow Wilson to deal with actualities instead of ideas? Will he never be able to think in facts instead of in phrases?

We had hoped so. We had believed that the removal of the vague unsubstantiality of Bryan, following the hard grip of the Germanic crisis, might take Woodrow Wilson from the realm of the essayist and put him into the arena of real life.

His Manhattan Club speech shows that this has not happened. There is music in his words and beauty in its moralizing. There is a hymning quality in its far-flown idealizing of America's purposes.

But—we have had all this before. We have had it not once but many times. We know well how our President can lyricize the American idea. We have seen him do it over and over again.

The time has come when we want ugly realities instead of beautiful abstractions. The matter of protecting the soil of the United States from the bloody horrors of Belgium, Poland, Flanders and Serbia is no longer a pretty-pretty topic for poetic meanderings.

It is a hard, grim ugly thing that we have got to do. It isn't poetry; it's business. It isn't philosophizing; it's averting murder and rape.

How does the President handle it? Advertised as the champion of "preparedness," the striker of the note for the 1916 campaign, he starts his "keynote speech" with an apology. He continues that apology as long as he dwells on "preparedness."

Follow him thru his easy approach to his congressional program. There is grace, infinite calmness, grandiose paintings of the glories of America's unselfishness toward the world. Upon these things rests the emphasis. The "preparedness" program itself—the thing that the country wants to see explained in plain words and urged in bold ones—is dropped almost casually into the flowing stream of classic English.

The President is so bent upon offering to ourselves and to the world our excuses for deciding to make our army and navy adequate for our own defense that he again slides the army and navy into the background where they have languished ever since the civil war. If any foreign statesman made this sort of speech about an increase in armament, the other powers would laugh in their sleeves. When we make it we are sincere enough. We mean it. But our saying it will convince no one but ourselves, and we do not need convincing.

One year ago today the President was saying equally beautiful things about our beneficent national spirit. One year ago he was saying hardly less unreal things about national defense. "The country has been misinformed," he told Congress. "We have not been negligent of national defense." Was ever a calm, jaunty assurance less related to reality?

One year ago President Wilson was talking of America's world mission with equal grandeur—and simultaneously blocking Congressman Gardner's armament investigation. One year ago "preparedness," to the President was "talk for talk's sake." One year ago his Secretary of the Navy told the public that it was "jingoism" for Americans to discuss "preparedness" at this time.

We had a year ago all the "playing down" of "preparedness" that we need. What we need today is "playing up" of preparedness. We do not want apologies for preparing ourselves against invasion. We do not want fine spiritual explanations about the connections between national defense and American ideals. We do not want decorous sermons about a technical job that confronts us.

What we want is a clear, undecorated explanation of what we've got to do and a courageous and stirring appeal to do it.

We don't want apologies for "preparedness;" we want leadership in it.

That is what we have failed to get from Woodrow Wilson in the sixteen months of the war. That is what we failed to get in his "keynote speech."

If these calm and classic shoutings of the Great Necessity represent Mr. Woodrow Wilson's idea of a vital and aggressive platform for 1916, we believe that the road for successful opposition to him lies wide open. It can be followed by any national forward-minded Republican running on a platform of Real Military Preparedness and a Positive Foreign Policy.

Catarrh a Blood Disease S.S.S. Drives It From the System

Because Catarrh affects the nose and throat, causing sores in the nostrils, stoppage of air-passages and gathering in the throat, it has been common practice to treat Catarrh by lotions, washes and sprays applied to these parts. This mode of treatment is entirely wrong. It cannot give permanent relief, and it is liable to irritate and aggravate the trouble. Catarrh cannot be trifled with. If allowed to run on it will disease the bronchial tubes, settle on the lungs, the stomach—indeed it is a very serious disease. Don't treat it locally. The fact that it causes headaches is proof that it is caused by impure and diseased blood. The one treatment that has proved effective in the treatment of Catarrh is S. S. S., the blood purifier.

HARVARD UNIVERSITY DEFEATS PRINCETON

SHATTERS ALL CHAMP HOPES OF ORANGE AND BLACK.

Crimson Generally Outplays the Tigers—Cornell Defeats Michigan—Northwestern Shows Missouri Something of Modern Football.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 6.—Harvard University football team defeated the Princeton eleven here today ten to six. It was the fourth consecutive victory for the Crimson over the tigers since 1912 and the defeat shattered all hopes of the Orange and Black to any claim to the eastern football championship of the present season.

Notwithstanding the apparent closeness of the score, the honors of victory belong chiefly to Harvard, for the contest, considered as a whole was between the Crimson team as a combination and the individual scoring ability of Tibbott's goal kicking toe. Not once during the entire sixty minutes of play was Princeton able to batter Harvard eleven back across the Crimson goal line, twice during the struggle the Tiger plunges and sprinted thru the Harvard line for more than two thirds the length of the gridiron, only one touchdown appeared imminent by the superior defense of the Cambridge players. It was then that Captain Glick called upon Tibbott to do what the Princeton team as a whole was unable to accomplish and both times the Tigers scored a cleanly kicked field goal.

Against this one man attack Harvard showed a better rounded out campaign which netted the Crimson a touchdown and goal and a field goal kicked by Captain Mahan.

Between 25,000 and 30,000 spectators filled both sides of the Palmer Memorial Stadium, while the over-flow swung around well into the horse end of the structure.

The play, while thrilling at times did not equal in either brilliancy or intensity big football games in which Princeton and Harvard have been factors in other years. The contest as a whole was slow and sometimes dull.

During the contest Harvard out-kicked and outplayed Princeton, suffered fewer penalties, gained more ground with forward passes and generally outplayed the Tigers. Princeton gained nine first downs to Harvard's seven. The Harvard interference was better timed and more cohesive than Princeton's and the offensive plays selected with better judgment. Not in several years has poorer tackling been witnessed in a big eastern football game. The players of both elevens frequently missed their opponent completely and at other times tried to bring him to the ground with neck holds.

Captain Ned Mahan was the individual star of the game, owing to his dodging runs, punting and goal kicking ability.

Cornell, 34; Michigan, 7.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 6.—Barrett's great open field play and ability to crash thru Michigan's line at opportune moments was an important factor in the 34 to 7 victory which the football eleven of Cornell scored over Michigan here today.

Barrett was a team in himself. Michigan could not stop him. The first touchdown required only three plays to complete after Barrett tossed forward pass to Eckley early in the first quarter. Barrett carried the ball over on a plunge thru Watson and then kicked goal. The second touchdown resulted from a straight line attack. Malbetsch fumble, Cornell recovered the ball and Collins made the touchdown by smashing thru the weak Wolverine line.

Again Barrett kicked goal. In the second period Barrett electrified the crowd by a snaky run of 30 yards after catching a punt. An side the tackles enabled Cornell to sweep 30-yards to Michigan's goal, where Barrett made the score. He kicked goal.

A Cornell fumble in Cornell territory gave Michigan the ball in the third period. Cornell found Maulbetsch unstoppable and Reiman made the last yard which resulted in a touchdown. Cochran made the goal.

Collins was responsible for both touchdowns in the last period. He carried a punt back 30 yards to Michigan's 15-yard line and Shiverick went over. Shortly after Collins intercepted a forward pass on his own 40 yard line and raced across the gridiron for a score. Barrett missed the last goal.

Northwestern, 24; Missouri, 6.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Northwestern showed Missouri something about modern football today. With Driscoll a star in long runs and contributing a field goal by a drop kick, the purple outplayed the Tigers and won handsily 24 to 6. Missouri showed several flashes of form and was especially strong in line bucking. While Pittman and, in the last period, Reppy, plunged for good gains. This plunging gave the Missourians their only touchdown, which came in the second period. Pittman's punting was a feature. Northwestern scored a touchdown in each of the first three periods, working long forward passes successfully. Driscoll's field goal was made in the last quarter.

Score by periods:
Missouri 0 6 0 0—6
Northwestern 7 7 7 3—24

Chicago, 35; Haskell, 0.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—The University of Chicago with a team composed chiefly of substitutes, easily defeated the Haskell Indians here today, 35 to 0.

Altho the Indians never seriously threatened the Chicago goal they showed occasional flashes of brilliancy in handling forward passes and made excellent gains by this method of attack.

Score by periods:
Haskell 0 0 0 0—0
Chicago 6 3 7 13—26
Dartmouth, 7; Pennsylvania, 3
Boston, Nov. 6.—University of Pennsylvania was defeated by Dartmouth today 7 to 3 but only after the red and blue team had made a stubborn fight for winner's honors. Dartmouth's offense was erratic, flashing brilliantly thru its opponents' line at times, but being stopped at other times by alert Pennsylvania forwards. Occasionally the green faltered and fumbled and Pennsylvania turned these shortcomings to its own side.

It was a fumble by Holbrook which put Pennsylvania in a position from which Hawley summoned as a pinch kicker from the sub's bench drove the ball over the goal from the 22-yard line in the last period. Dartmouth became desperate in the remaining few minutes of play and Quarterback Holbrook launched a forward pass. It sped 20 yards over the line of scrimmage where Emery had evaded every one and stood alone. He had a clear field from the twenty yard dash to the goal line. Spears kicked the goal.

Score by periods:
Dartmouth—0 0 0 7—7.
Pennsylvania—0 0 3 3—3.

Notre Dame, 7; Army, 0.

West Point, Nov. 6.—The Army lost to Notre Dame today 7 to 0 in a well played and hard fought game. The Army showed a weak offense and none of the cadet backs could gain consistently thru the Notre Dame line except Oliphant who played his usual star game. The Army forwards were outplayed most of the time and its wings were woefully weak. Three times Notre Dame essayed to kick field goals but failed. Coffin outkicked Phelan in a punting duel. There was some loose handling of the ball and numerous penalties were imposed for offside plays and holding. Bergman and Coffin were the stars for Notre Dame, while McEwan and Oliphant played the best game for the cadets.

Score:
Army—0 0 0 0—0.
Notre Dame—0 0 0 7—7.

Navy, 13; Bucknell, 3.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 6.—Altho Navy's eleven showed little improvement in attack or defense they managed to defeat Bucknell today 13 to 3. The mid-shipsmen were unable to tally in the first period but the visitors scored a field goal a short time after the contest started.

With the West Point game only three weeks off, the Navy coaches hoped that today's contest would have resulted in at least a 30 point victory. There has been however, an absence of variety in attack and of sureness in the few plays that have been tried.

Brown, 3; Yale, 0.

New Haven, Nov. 6.—A neat field goal from the 22-yard line by Captain Andrews in the third quarter gave Brown its second victory over Yale in twenty-two years today the score being 3 to 0.

Ohio State, 10; Indiana, 9.

Columbus, O., Nov. 6.—Ohio State defeated Indiana by one point here today in a football game full of thrills. The final score was 10 to 9. Indiana's greater weight, silent signals and frequent changes of players could not wear down the Ohioans. In the first period, Ohio State chiefly by end runs rushed the ball to within one foot of Indiana's goal line but lacked the punch to put it over. After an exchange of punts, Ohio State reached the visitors' thirty yard line from which Winters kicked a goal from placement.

A series of line plunges and Whitaker's 16 yard run around end in the second period resulted in Indiana's first score, a touchdown by Erehart. A forward pass landed in Norton's arms and he ran 31-yards for Ohio's second score. In the third quarter, Erehart missed a drop kick, the ball rolling to Ohio's goal line where Sorenson picked it up and was down behind his goal line for a safety. Indiana was on the offensive most of the last quarter and frequently used the forward pass. Shortly before the contest ended the visitors were held for downs within Ohio's five yard line.

Purdue 19; Iowa 13.

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 6.—Purdue won its first conference game of the season today when Iowa was defeated 19 to 13.

Pultz with two field goals was the star on offense for Purdue while Captain Blocker's defensive play was invaluable. Allen, a substitute, went in at halfback in the third quarter and did spectacular work. Iowa's back field smashed the Purdue line repeatedly.

DECLARE EXPRESS SERVICE ADEQUATE.

The Illinois State Utilities commission on Friday handed down a decision in the case of E. P. Curtis et al. of Bluffs against the Wells-Fargo Express company. Mr. Curtis had asked for more adequate express service which contemplated the installation of wagons. The commission held that inasmuch as the main part of the town was only about 1000 feet from the railroad station and the agent was willing to call for packages the installation of wagons was unnecessary.

TO HOLD POSTPONED CONVENTION IN QUINCY DECEMBER 1 AND 2

Upper Mississippi River Improvement Body Will Meet—Five Governors Are Invited.

Quincy, Ill., Nov. 6.—The postponed fourteenth annual convention of the Upper Mississippi River Improvement Association will be held in this city December 1 and 2 according to an official call just issued from the office of L. B. Boswell, secretary of the organization. The governors of Illinois, Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin; the mayors of towns and villages in those states, all commercial and business men's organizations and representatives of the press are invited to attend or send delegates to represent them.

"It was expected the convention would be held Oct. 13 and 14," says the call, "but the president and executive council deemed it advisable to change the date to Dec. 1 and 2 in order that, if possible, the delegates might have an opportunity to inspect the new modern self-propelled steel barge being built for service on the river between the Twin Cities and New Orleans."

The call adds that every effort is being made to get the barge finished and to Quincy by that date.

"A new condition presents itself," the call states further, "requiring earnest consideration on the part of the manufacturing and jobbing interests of the cities of the upper valley, in the effect of the Panama canal, as shown even in these abnormal times, the benefits of which are accruing more to the Eastern Atlantic states than to the Middle West. The importance of meeting this situation is growing stronger daily, and western interests affected are realizing the necessity and importance of providing water transportation to the Gulf to connect with seaborne traffic under cheaper rates of freight, to offset the advantages the eastern cities are enjoying as a result of their lower freight rates obtained via the Panama canal to or from the Pacific coast, the Orient, South America and elsewhere."

The call points out that the Mississippi river offers an "avenue of relief" and states that water freight traffic "is no longer a theory, but has become a stern factor of necessity." A committee, it is stated, will report on this subject at the convention.

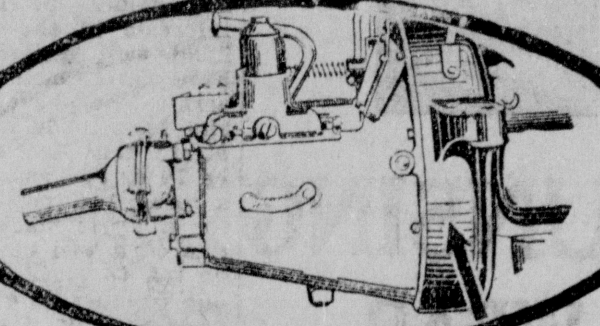

The call adds that the coming convention "will be of greater practical importance than any preceding it."

Vinol

CREATES STRENGTH FOR WEAK WOMEN

AND RUN-DOWN PEOPLE

Recommended by The Mother Superior, Rosary Hill Home

Hawthorne, N.Y. — "I have been at work among the sick and poor for nearly eighteen years, and whenever I have used Vinol for run-down, weak or emaciated patients they have been visibly benefited by it. One patient, a young woman, was so weak and ill she could hardly creep to my door for aid, and was leaning on a friend's arm. I supplied Vinol to her liberally, and in a month when she returned to thank me I hardly recognized her. She was strong, her color charming and her cheeks rounded out. These words are uttered from my heart, in order that more people may know about Vinol, as there is nothing makes me happier in the world than to relieve the sick." — Mother M. ALPHONSE LATHROP, O.S.D., Hawthorne, N.Y.

The reason Vinol builds up weak, run-down women so quickly is because it contains a delicious combination of the three most successful tonics, peptonate of iron to enrich and revitalize the blood, the strength-creating, body-building elements of fresh cod's livers without oil, and beef peptone.

SUCCESSFUL RICE GROWERS IN STATE OF ARKANSY

Mrs. Nannie Camm Toll, daughter of the late Col. William Camm, is now a resident of Bails Bluff, Arkansas, and is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Iven Wood and family of Pisgah vicinity. She says her husband and her brother have been very successful in growing rice. This year they had 295 acres of that crop and for months spent night and day keeping the acreage flooded with water. It sometimes to the depth of six inches for rice is a water plant and must grow as lilies thrive.

People about there were doubtful regarding the production of rice but Mr. Toll agreed if they would help him build a plant needed for watering the crop and costing something like $3,000 he would guarantee them a crop of thirty bushels of rice to the acre. They agreed and this year Mr. Toll and Mr. Camm have secured more than sixty bushels of rice to the acre having already threshed more than 18,000 bushels from 295 acres, and not all the crop has gone through the machine. It seems the threshing machine sends out the crop in the husk and for it in that condition they get 92 cents a bushel and after that it has to go through some other kind of a machine to make it ready for the consumer.

In China and Japan they have a rock hollowed out something like a large bowl. They cut the heads from the straw with a knife leaving the stalks in shape for the fine matting we get there. Then with little mountain streams and other devices they have three poles perhaps ten feet long and five or six inches in diameter so rigged that they work up and down vertically and thus pound out the grain for the celestials.

MORROW SUE TO RECOVER.

Many persons in the city will remember Harry C. Morrow, the indefatigable promoter of the Whitehall Sewer Pipe company. A recent issue of the St. Louis Post Dispatch says that the church membership of John E. Franklin and reputation as a "leading Baptist" induced Mr. Morrow to accept Franklin's advice to buy $103,775 worth of stock in the Bankers' Trust Company, which is now in the hands of a receiver. Mr. Franklin was president of the trust company and Morrow says the stock was sold him thru misrepresentations and that false dividends were paid when the concern was not earning money.

Morrow testified that in 1913 he was employed by the bank in the promotion department for five years at a salary of $12,000 a year and then Franklin urged him to buy stock and when Morrow said he didn't have the money he was induced by Franklin to borrow it. A dividend was paid him last February and it wasn't earned but the true condition of the company was concealed from him.

The defendants reply that their failure was due to in part to the building of the San Antonio & Gulf railroad. The financing of the road was interfered with by the retirement of Ben F. Edwards, president of the Bank of Commerce which they say, had thru Edwards agreed to guarantee loans to the amount of $1,000,000 but when Edwards retired the bank refused to carry out the agreement.

Morrow is suing to get back his money which he says was secured by false representations.

Private Diseases a Specialty!

NERVOUS DEBILITY—Are you nervous, despondent, weak, tired mornings, no ambition, poor memory, easily fatigued, excitable and irritable, eyes sunken, red and blurred, pimples on the face, dreams, restless, haggard looking, weak back, deposit in urine, drains at stool, distrustful, want of confidence, lack of energy and strength.

The annual appropriation for the Federal Meat Inspection Service is now about $3,375,000, so that the cost to the people would be between 5 and 6 cents per animal if the service was confined entirely to the inspection of the animals and carcasses.

In addition, however, great quantities of the meat and products are inspected. In this item there was a very considerable increase during the last fiscal year, the reinspection resulting in the condemnation of a total of nearly 19,000,000 pounds of products of one kind or another.

Furthermore, 245,000,000 pounds of imported meat products were inspected and more than 2,000,000 pounds condemned or refused entry.

In the course of its work, the Bureau of Animal Industry, which is in charge of the meat inspection service, has discovered a new method of destroying trichinae in pork, which is an additional safeguard to human health.

Refrigeration at a temperature of 5 degrees, F., or lower, for a period of 20 days will destroy these parasites which occasionally give rise in human beings to the serious disease known as trichinosis.

Hitherto the only known safeguard against this disease has been thorough cooking of all pork and pork products, and these persons who neglect this precaution have always been more or less exposed to the danger.

Unless pork is known to have been subjected to refrigeration as above indicated it should be thoroughly cooked. The microscopic examination of pork for the detection of trichinae has been abandoned as the usual methods have proved inefficient.

In this connection it is interesting to note that more swine were slaughtered in the past year in establishments under Federal inspection than ever before. A total of 36,247,953 were inspected at the time of slaughter and approximately 35,900,000 passed for food.

GREAT ENTERPRISE NEARS COMPLETION

The new building of the Young Men's Christian Association College in the city of Chicago is now nearing completion. This College, which is the professional training school of the association, sustains an important relation to the whole Association Movement. It is designed to provide thoroughly trained men for secretarial positions in local Associations. More than 4,000 such secretaries are employed in Associations throughout the country. And there is a growing demand for thoroughly trained men to fill these positions.

In the new building instructors are already at work meeting their classes and lecturing, accompanied by the hammer of the workmen who are preparing the building for the formal opening.

The building itself is a handsome and commodious brick structure and will afford all conveniences for the training of the secretaries. The central part of the building contains a large gymnasium 63x92 feet, swimming pool, handball courts, and all necessary equipment for the training of men in physical culture. The west wing affords room for the offices on the first floor, while the second and third floors are given over to Assembly Hall, classrooms, library and laboratories. The towers will contain unique features, the most interesting of these will be a replica of the famous room in London in which Sir George Williams is co-operating with the officers of the College in this enterprise. Architect's drawings of the original room have been secured and an exact reproduction will appear in the west tower of the College building. This room is designed not only as a repository for articles of historical interest, but as a place for rest and meditation as well.

U. S. SAFEGUARDS THE COUNTRY'S MEAT SUPPLY

Nearly Sixty Per Cent of Animals Now Slaughtered Under Federal Inspectors.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 6.—More than 58,000,000 meat animals were slaughtered in establishments under Federal inspection during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1915. Since approximately from 58 to 60 per cent of the animals killed in the country are slaughtered in establishments where Federal inspection is maintained, it appears that about 190,000,000 meat animals are now being killed each year in the United States.

Of the animals subjected to Federal inspection 299,958 were condemned as unfit for human use, and 644,688 were condemned in part. Thus a little more than 1-1/2 per cent of all the animals inspected were condemned either in whole or in part. These figures include only cattle, calves, sheep, goats, and swine.

Tuberculosis was the chief cause of the condemnations. More than 32,444 carcasses of cattle and 66,000 carcasses of swine were entirely rejected on account of this disease, and in addition parts of 48,000 cattle and 440,000 swine. Hog cholera was responsible for the next largest loss, nearly 102,000 swine being condemned entirely on this account.

The annual appropriation for the Federal Meat Inspection Service is now about $3,375,000, so that the cost to the people would be between 5 and 6 cents per animal if the service was confined entirely to the inspection of the animals and carcasses. In addition, however, great quantities of the meat and products are inspected. WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

PREDICTIONS OF LIBERAL INCREASE OF VISIBLE SUPPLY LOWERS WHEAT

Market Closes Unsettled—Corn Averages Higher as a Result of Bullish Crop Reports.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Predictions of a liberal increase of the visible supply total on Monday gave an advantage today to the bears in wheat and so did a good deal of wild guessing about the reasons for the departure of Earl Kitchener from London. The market closed unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to 1/2c lower with December at $1.04 1/4@1.04 1/2, and May at $1.05 1/2. Corn closed a shade off to 1/4c up, oats at a sixteenth down to a like advance and provisions unchanged to 3/5c higher.

Announcements that primary receipts of wheat today amounted to 1,000,000 bushels more than on the corresponding day a year ago had much to do with making the bulls uneasy in regard to the extent of the prospective enlargement of the United States visible supply figures. Big totals for the preceding days of the week with estimates that Chicago and Kansas City would each have as many as 600 carloads arriving Monday acted as a further discouragement for soldiers who were also handicapped by surmises current that Earl Kitchener might attend a peace conference in Switzerland. The uncertainty as to his real mission left the way open for a variety of other rumors too, that in some degree tended to have a bearish effect late in the session.

Reports that the French government had bought 1,000,000 barrels of flour in the United States furnished strength to wheat through most of the first half of the day. Forecasts of unsettled weather likely to interfere with receipts proved also of some effect toward lifting prices but the influence failed to last, being offset by complaints that the winter crop southwest was in need of rain. Corn averaged higher as a result of bullish crop reports from Iowa and owing to export demand for shipment by way of the gulf. The market, however, reflected somewhat the late weakness in wheat. Oats continued to keep firm within a narrow range. Export inquiry was good.

Active buying of lard helped provisions upgrade as a whole. Tank lard, which not long ago could not be sold except at sixty cents under the January option was a discount today of only 40c.

RENEW SELLING OF STOCKS, MAINLY FOR PROFESSIONAL ACCOUNT

Movement Is Accompanied by Disquieting Rumors Concerning European Conditions.

New York, Nov. 6.—Selling of stocks mainly for professional account, was renewed today and continued with little interruption throughout the short session. The movement was accompanied by disquieting rumors concerning European conditions. Losses embraced almost every part of the active list, coppers alone manifesting relative steadiness. Trading was light with an utter lack of public interest.

London market was closed but there were further sales of our stocks and bonds for "future" delivery. Much of this selling was by brokers with international connections and included those American issues most popular abroad.

Canada Pacific fell 2% and other rails, including Great Northern, St. Paul and Eastern Trunk Lines, about a point each.

Reading's extreme loss of 1 1/2 to 82 1/2 was ascribed to the sudden death of a prominent capitalist identified with the road.

War shares yielded more or less severely to moderate pressure, the automobile group losing 2 to 5 points with declines within that range by Baldwin Locomotive, Crucible Steel, Lackawanna Steel and Railway Springs, while New York Air-brake lost 7 at 131. United States Steel receded moderately, considering its fairly large overturn.

It fell 1/4 to 85 1/2 and closed at 85. Various miscellaneous shares were heavy to weak, some of these issues reflecting an absence of recent speculative interest. In the final dealings fractional recoveries were scored on covering by short contracts. Total sales amounted to 455,000 shares.

The bank statement showed an actual loan expansion of about $52,500,000, with a corresponding increase of deposits and a negligible cash loss while reserves decreased about $7,000,000 reducing excess reserves to $789,000,000.

Business advices were of the same cheerful tenor as those recently issued, especial stress being laid on two features.

CHICAGO "WETS" PLAN BIG PARADE FOR TODAY

PREDICT SCORES OF THOU-SANDS WILL BE IN LINE.

Profession is Intended as a Protest to Mayor Thompson's Action in Enforcing State Law Closing Saloons on Sunday.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Officers of the United Societies for Local Self Government have said that the "Home Rule and Personal Liberty" parade to be held tomorrow through the downtown streets of Chicago, as a protest against Mayor William Hale Thompson's action in enforcing the state law closing saloons on Sunday, will be the largest demonstration of its kind ever seen in this country.
They have predicted that scores of thousands would be in line, including many trade unionists and numerous women. More than 2,000 organizations of various kinds, representing twenty nationalities, were announced as having accepted invitations to participate.

No organization directly or indirectly representing the liquor business will be allowed in the column, sponsors for the demonstration announcing that brewers, saloonkeepers, distillers and bar tenders who desire to march will do so as individuals or as members of other organizations. An effort was made to provide automobiles for all the women who desired to appear in the demonstration. Plans also were made for the construction of hundreds of floats.

Mayor Thompson declined an invitation to review the procession, saying a letter in which he denounced the demonstration as showing disrespect for law and as an attempt to intimidate officials sworn to enforce the statutes. A further evidence of hostility to the parade on the part of the city administration came in the refusal of the building inspector's department to permit erection of a reviewing stand on the LaSalle street side of the city hall. W. R. Moorehouse, commissioner of public works in the mayor's cabinet, informed the United Societies officials that "granting permit for a stand in front of the city hall would place the administration in the light of giving its sanction to the protest."

Invitations to review the marchers were also sent to Gov. Edward F. Dunne of Illinois and other state, county and city officials.
The United Societies for Local Self Government, under whose auspices the parade will be held, consists of 973 auxiliary organizations.
The committee in charge of the parade consists of George Landau, Auton J. Gernak, A. H. Rosentiel, C.
F. Pettkoske, Leopold Neumann and William Fischer. Mr. Landau, who is president of the United Societies, said today:

"The parade was planned as a mighty protest against the action of Mayor Thompson in closing the Chicago saloons Sunday. We want the officials and the citizens of the city, county, state and nation to know how a majority of the population feel on this question. There will be more than 100,000 patriotic American citizens in line. If the weather is fine there may be 200,000 marchers."

The parade is to form in five divisions in different sections of the city and march down town where it will merge into one procession. The north side division will form at La-Salle and Illinois streets; the northwest side at Milwaukee avenue and Desplaines street; the west side at Desplaines and Randolph streets;
the south side at Harrison and Canal streets and the southwest side at Blue Island avenue and Harrison street.

The police department issued a permit for the parade but was not asked to guard the line of march.
Instead this police work will be done by members of the German, Polish and Bohemian Turner societies.

paper Saturday afternoon before the Woman's Club of that place. She was accompanied by Miss Mary Anderson and Miss Mary Johnston of the faculty.

Miss M. Louise Glecker, head of the Expression Department, will give her former recital on Monday night at eight o'clock. It will be a monologue, Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew." She will impersonate all the leading characters and will give a most delightful evening's entertainment. Admission is free. All friends of the college are cordially invited to be present.

Dr. John W. Hancher of the Board of Education spent three days at the college last week on business connected with the completion of the $200,- 000.00 Endowment.

Dr. Harry Laidler, authority on Economic Problems, will speak in the College chapel Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock. His subject will be "The Why of Woman's Suffrage."
This is also open to the public. Admission is free.

Mrs. MacDowell, widow of the famous composer, will give a lecture recital under the auspices of the college Friday night in Music Hall. This recital is the first of those that will be brought to Jacksonville by the college for the benefit of the students.
Admission is free to all students of the college taking regular work.
Tickets for town pupils may be had at the office after Wednesday, November 10th. A small admission fee will be charged to those not pupils.
The library has been given $500 which is being spent in new books.
Many are being added constantly.

The Halloween Party on Monday night was in charge of the College Specials. It was one of the most successful ever given in the history of the college, and reflects great credit on the officers, in fact, on all members of this class. The decorations and costumes were especially clever.
The customary Halloween refreshments were served.

Over four hundred Japanese barberies are being planted around the college buildings.

Miss Amanda Kidder, formerly head of the Expression Department, was a guest of Dr. and Mrs. Harker at dinner Friday evening. She was accompanied by Miss Jeannette Powell of this city.

Owing to the increase in work in the Academy, Miss Erma Elliott has been secured to assist in the Mathematics Department. She will have beginning Algebra. Miss Elliott is well qualified to fill this position, as she graduated with honor from the department of Mathematics in the class of 1914 and spent one year of graduate work at the University of Illinois, receiving her Master of Arts degree there.

Mrs. Belle Short Lambert has returned after an extended trip in the northern part of the state in the interest of the college.

The piano recital given by Mr.
Henry V. Stearns, director of the College of Music, was a brilliant affair. Every number was rendered most artistically, and at the conclusion of the recital he received such applause, that he was finally compelled to give an encore to the closing number.

EAT WITHOUT FEAR OF INDIGESTION OR SOUR, ACID STOMACH

Instant Relief! "Pape's Diapepsin" Ends Your Stomach Trouble Forever.

Wonder what upset your stomach —which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gas and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasional keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it di-gests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astounding. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.—Adv.

THE CHARM OF MOTHERHOOD

Enhanced By Perfect Physical Health.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

GIRL DRIVER WINS

BIG ECONOMY RUN

Miss Eva Cunningham of Haverhill, Mass., Surprises the Veterans—Maxwell Averages High.

To the amazement of the veteran road drivers who took part in the recent Maxwell efficiency run from Buffalo to their homes in New England and the other North Atlantic states, the first place winner turned out to be the only woman pilot in the tour.

Miss Eva Cunningham, daughter of F. J. Cunningham, Maxwell dealer at Haverhill, Mass., drove from Buffalo to Haverhill, 507 miles, on exactly 17 gallons of gasoline—an average of 33.37 miles to the gallon. Her car was a new Maxwell Roadster.

Oil Economy, Too.

There is no disputing Miss Cunningham's record. Her drive was under the eye of several witnesses and the details are set forth in her own affidavit.

Miss Cunningham's car also went the route without the addition of a drop of cylinder oil to the original supply. This is really the fact which won her the big slice of the Flanders prize, as her mileage on fuel was exceeded by two of the other cars in the big tour—those driven by her father and by George D. Robinson, of Springfield, Mass. Mr. Cunningham's new Maxwell touring car averaged 36.85 miles per gallon, and Mr. Robinson's roadster, 34.9 miles. Each of the male pilots, however, added a quart of oil to the original supply.

Second prize went to Verne H. Jackson, of Pen Argyle, Pa., and third to Joseph De Cantillon, of Meriden, Conn., the former covering 368 and the latter 474 miles.

Six of the tourists, virtually all of whom were Maxwell dealers, driving new cars to their homes from Buffalo, scored averages of better than 30 miles per gallon; sixteen scored between 25 and 30 miles. In fact, the average of the entire tour, including eighty cars, was very close to 25 miles to the gallon—a degree of efficiency almost incredible to those not acquainted with recent carburetion developments in cars of the light, popular-priced type.

Chas. "Ladder" on High.
The tourists who watched Miss Cunningham's driving praise her without reservation. She piloted her car up "Jacob's Ladder"—a rolling climb of 130 miles—on high gear, and showed the most dashing sort of skill on a number of detours where rough and difficult roads were met with.

A year ago a sensation was caused when a Maxwell, under observation at Yale university, made a record of 33.2 miles to the gallon. This record was bettered by the three of the cars in the recent tour, including... the one driven by Miss Cunningham. Nor had the 1916 model Maxwells been given any preparation for the test; all were new cars getting their first run after leaving the factory.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES.

An invitation is again extended to all friends of the College to attend the chapel exercises at 10 o'clock, Tuesday morning, when an old portrait of Asa Turner will be presented to the College. Asa Turner was not only one of the founders of Illinois college, but after he left Illinois and went to Iowa he became one of the founders of Grinnell college and of Denmark academy. His work in Iowa was even more important than his work in the state of Illinois. The exercises on Tuesday will relate to the history of the "Yale Band" with especial reference to the work of Asa Turner.

The new stereopticon of the college will be used for the illustrated lecture on the United States navy, which is to be given in the college chapel Friday evening, Nov. 12th, by William Mather Lewis. Mr. Lewis is an entertaining speaker, and it is said that his illustrations are unusually good.

President Rammelkamp went to Springfield on Thursday for a conference with the governor on business relating to the Illinois State Historical Library.

Mrs. Butler of Palmyra visited her son, Oren Butler, on Thursday. The Devotional service at Academy hall on Sunday evening will be led by Mr. Earl Shafer.

President A. R. Taylor of Millikin university was a visitor at the game on Friday.

SING SING ALUMNI TO ORGANIZE.
New York, Nov. 6.—The "Sing Sing Alumni Association" is completing plans for a permanent organization. The charter members are sending out invitations to all "graduates" of the institution conducted by Thomas Mott Osborne, outlining the benefits and social advantages of the new organization.

One of the first things in view is the establishment of an employment bureau for the "graduates," to find employment for men as they leave their alma mater. Because of the wide variance of training and adaptability of the Sing Sing "graduates," the committee will have its hands full to find just the right job for each man.

Then there will be established a club-room for the alumni, with a library and writing-room. On the reading table, of course, the "Star of Hope," the periodical now published in Sing Sing, will find prominent place, with other periodicals of the day. Comfortable chairs will be provided, so that the "old graduates" can sit and talk over good old days.

Then again, it is planned to have an annual banquet, at which their former jailers will be the guests of honor.

"Though it may sound strange," says Deputy Warden Church of Sing Sing "there is a good, sound theory underlying the proposition. These men have decided to make a clean breast of their records before the public, and to help other ex-prisoners who might otherwise fall into the old paths. They will consider their Sing Sing training as an asset. With nothing to hide, it can at least be said that the probability of the men going straight will be greatly increased."

Will Sing Solos.

Mrs. Hartmann's solos at Grace M. E. church today will be "What Are These Which Are Arrived?" by O. Brown, and "Give Aims of Thy Goods," by Bontemps.

William Taylor of Neeleyville spent Saturday trading in the city.

Mr. Kitch directed the orchestra and Mr. Munger was at the piano. Many expressions of enthusiasm were made by members of the audience over the playing of the orchestra.

W. R. HUCKEY'S FATHER DIED RECENTLY AT MISSOURI HOME

Deceased Has Been a Resident of That State Many Years—Left Large Estate.

News comes to Mr. W. R. Huckleby of 846 State street of the death of his father, an old and respected resident of South East Missouri. The following is from the Sikeston, (Mo.) Herald:

"Moses Canoy, the oldest citizen of Sikeston, died at his late residence on Stoddard street, last Sunday, October 24, 1915. He was born in North Carolina and would have been 90 years old had he lived until Dec. 28th.

"He was one of the pioneers of this section and of the Big Opening country in New Madrid county, a few miles from this city. He came to this country when he was 18 years old or nearly 72 years ago. He had been a member of the M. E. church, South, for many years and the funeral services were held at the Sikeston M. E. church Monday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Clarence Burton.

His wife's maiden name was Amie York, but she was Mrs. Sim Huckleby, mother of John and W. R. Huckleby, when he married her about the first year of the Civil war.

Mr. Canoy had been in the mercantile business here a long time. Years ago and in recent years he had been identified with various mercantile and business interests. He had been a heavy depositor at the Bank of Sikeston, and due to respect for him the three banks here closed for his funeral.

At his death Mr. Canoy's estate is probably worth about $150,000. He owned a fine farm of 480 acres in Big Opening, some surplus cash, thousands of dollars loaned out on interest and also owned between 20 and 30 houses in Sikeston."

BURGLARIZE GROCERY.

The grocery store of W. P. Berry at the corner of South West and Anne streets was entered by burglars some time Friday night. The thieves gained an entrance by prying open a window. About $4 in small change was taken. The matter was reported to the police but so far there is no clue to the burglars.

NOTABLE BIRTHDAYS TODAY.

Nov. 7.
Madame Marie Sklodowski Curie, known as the cleverest woman in the world, is spending her 48th birthday today in the little ivy-covered cottage which she and her husband occupied when they were married in Paris. To her is due the discovery of radium which is rapidly becoming a leading factor in the modern hospital and is the last hope of millions of afflicted of this and succeeding generations. Madame Curie has had a wonderful career. She was born in Warsaw, Poland, on November 7, 1867, the daughter of Prof. Sklodowski, a noted scientist of the University of Warsaw. Little Marie aided her father in the laboratory, instead of playing with dolls and toys. She travelled as a governess thru Europe. But on the death of her father, she decided to continue his scientific work. Her love of science drew her to Paris, where she arrived almost destitute. She lived in a garret as many have done before her, when imbued with the pursuit of a single aim. She lived on ten cents a day, and spent her money when she had it on books and apparatus. Then she met Pierre Curie a kindred soul, rising to fame in science. They were married, and devoted themselves together to science. France was the slowest of the nations to recognize the wonderful couple. It was Lord Kelvin, the British savant, who first drew the world's attention to the Curies. Just as world fame came to them, tragedy came too. One day some eight years ago the husband was killed by a passing truck, and since then his widow has lived seclude in a suburb of Paris. She is modest and dreads publicity. Besides Radium, she discovered Polonium, and named it after her native land, Poland.

Dr. Andrew D. White, eminent American diplomat and founder of Cornell University, 83 years old today.

Judge Edward W. Felt, noted Indiana jurist and orator, 56 years old today.

Dr. Herbert Welch, pres. Ohio Wesleyan University, 53 years old today.

Hon. H. M. Jacoway, Congressman from Arkansas, 45 years old today.

Charlotte Mignon Crabtree, famous American actress, 68 years old today.

Dr. Abram W. Harris, president of Northwestern University, 57 years old today.

Hon. Robert L. Doughton, Congressman from North Carolina, 52 years old today.

STRAWBERRIES YET.

Wiley Todd of Lynnville precinct says he has a bed or patch of ever-bearing strawberries and has had several dishes the present month. There are blossoms now on the vines owing to the warm weather but Mr. Todd doesn't look for many more berries before warm weather in the spring. He says the vines have borne since early summer.

BACK FROM MONTICELLO.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Stevenson and son, Harry, wife and son, have returned from Monticello, Platt county, where they went to visit Mrs. R. R. Stevenson's sisters, the Misses Scott. They went in their Ford car and passed through Decatur en route. While in Monticello they had the pleasure of attending a musical recital given by pupils of Mrs. Clara Knollenberg Thompson.

On the way they saw the place of the accident that befell Miss Millicent, Rowe, Richard Rowe, Wilfred Ayers and Miss Elson Barnes. The young people were going at a rapid rate and not noticing a square turn in the road went right ahead, up a small embankment, through a wire fence, demolished an iron pump and crashed into the side of the house upsetting a dresser or bureau and knocking it into the middle of the room.

Only a few minutes before that time an old lady was sitting right at the spot struck by the car and had she been there at the time of the accident she would have been killed. The car was cranked and backed and was in condition to complete the journey to Champaign. On their return the young people settled the damage done the house leaving the people wholly satisfied. When the car struck the house they thought of an earthquake, a bomb exploding, and all sorts of dire disasters but not of the impact of an automobile.

FILES RENUNCIATION OF CLAIM IN ESTATE

MRS. MARY E. WOOD TAKES ACTION ON WILL OF LATE HUSBAND.

Widow of James Wood Will Take Half of Estate as Provided by Law, and Receive Approximately $100,000—Lengthy Litigation Expected—Cause of Action.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Mary E. Wood by her attorney, J. Marshall Miller filed in the probate court a renunciation of her claims and benefits provided under the will of her husband the late James Wood. Mr. Wood died last spring leaving an estate valued in round numbers at $200,000. The will bequeathed to the widow, Mrs. Mary E. Wood $31,000 in cash and the homestead on South Main street upon which the valuation was placed at $7,000. The income from certain farm lands and real estate was also left to her during her lifetime.

In her formal renunciation Mrs. Wood states that she does renounce and quit all claim to the benefit of any and all legacies and devises or other provision made for her in the last will and testament of her husband, James Wood. She further elects to take in lieu of the provisions of said will in her behalf, there being no child or descendants of a child of the said deceased him surviving, her legal share in said estate, that is one-half of all the real and personal property which shall remain after the payment of all debts and claims against said estate.

It is estimated that under the provisions of the will Mrs. Wood would receive approximately $60,000. Under the statute by her renunciation of her interest as provide in the will she will receive as her share in round figures probably $100,000. In the inventory of the property of the late Mr. Wood which is a voluminous one it is shown that he owned fully 1,200 acres of land. The inventory also sets out notes and other securities to the amount of nearly $32,000.

It is understood that Mrs. Wood was entirely satisfied with the provisions of the will. There was no desire on her part to attack it. However when suit was brought against the estate by George Wood et al, Mrs. Wood consulted with her friends and her attorney, J. Marshall Miller, and was advised that in view of probably lengthy litigation that it would be best to renounce her interest under the will and take her half of the estate as provided by law.

The executors of the will are Ivan Wood, Richard Wood and J. B. Beckman. When suit was brought by George Wood et al the executors engaged the firm of Worthington, Reeve and Green to represent them. Judge M. T. Layman is attorney for the contestants.

The action of Mrs. Wood may put an entirely new light on the contest. With Mrs. Wood taking her full share of the estate it will not leave such a large sum to contest for. The part Mrs. Wood will take, if she takes any, in the contest of the will is not known and at this time she has not decided on her course of action in the matter.

ASIATIC TRAVELS—THEME AT GRACE M. E. CHURCH

"The Transformation of Asia" Will be Subject of Mass Meeting at 3 O'clock Today.

The Jacksonville Ministerial association extend a general invitation to the public to attend the mass meeting at Grace M. E. church this afternoon at 3 o'clock, when the Rev. J. L. Brandt of St. Louis, who is in the city to conduct a three weeks' revival series at Central Christian church, will tell of his travels in India, China, Japan and other countries of the far east.

Dr. Brandt is an extensive traveler. A short time ago he returned from a world tour of 50,000 miles and during his life he has covered a distance of 400,000 miles, visiting most of countries of the world. Mr. Brandt's lecture, "The Transformation of Asia," was given in shortened form Monday morning at the November meeting of the ministerial association and so well were the pastors pleased that arrangements were made for its public deliverance this afternoon. Some special music has been arranged for the meeting by W. E. Kritch, Earl Pond and Harry Beckman.

Friday afternoon Mr. Brandt's travels in Japan were touched upon at the regular meeting of the Christian Woman's Board of Mission at Christian church. The regular C. W. B. M. program was at this time dispensed with and Mr. Brandt interested the members with an account of the manners and customs of the Japanese people and his own experiences and travels thru the Land of the Rising Sun. During a portion of one of his trips Mr. Brandt volunteered to preach, informing the authorities of the Japanese church that he would talk as many times as called upon. To his surprise he was required to give seven and eight sermons a day, and as he was compelled to speak thru an interpreter, he found the work in that one portion of Japan more than he had bargained for. A special vocal number was given by Mrs. C. F. Ehnie at this time, and after words of appreciation to Mr. Brandt for his informing talk, the meeting was adjourned.

THE GIRL OF TOMORROW COMING FRIDAY.

Mabel McCane, whose characterization of Flo Gaines in "The Girl of Tomorrow," which comes to the Grand Friday, Nov. 12th, has won her a vast amount of praise, is the proud possessor of an English bull pup of the usual vaunted pedigree, to which she has given a rather unusual name. She may have been influenced by Joseph Howard's music when she christened the pet, anyhow, she calls him "Duke." One day last week, after a matinee performance, Miss McCane missed Duke from her dressing room, but did not have time to look for him until after the final curtain. As soon as she was dressed for the street, she went down on the stage and began calling "Duke," without result at first. Finally, in anxious frame of mind, she poked her head out into the passageway leading to the stage door. "Duke oh, where are you, Duke," she called. An expressman was sitting on a package waiting for the door keeper to come and sign for it, and in an effort to be humorous he answered, with an Irish accent, "Here I am, derle." Miss McCane was taken aback a moment, then looking at the would-be humorist she said: "Oh, I was looking for an English bull pup, not an Irish setter."

SWITCH CONNECTIONS WILL NOT DELAY SOUTH MAIN PAVING

Materials for State Hospital Portion Are Ordered—Temporary Framework to Be Put in Until Steel Arrives.

While the frogs and rails for the switch which is to connect the street railway with Jacksonville State hospital grounds have not been received, this fact will not delay the new South Main street pavement nor will there be any necessity of tearing up the pavement afterward for the installation of this switch. At the point where the switch is to be laid, a frame work has been put in position, and when the steel is received this can be removed and substituted. Then any filling in along the switch necessary can be done. By the agreement reached the state will pay for this switch. The switch to be installed near the Vandalla road and Nichols park connecting the Chicago & Alton and the street railway will be paid for by the street railway under agreement with the C. & A.

The J. S. H. switch will connect with the street railway line at a point twenty feet south of the South Main street diamond switch and will enter the state hospital grounds at a point about eighty feet north of West Michigan avenue, according to plans now at the railway and light company office. The track will lie just north of the Michigan avenue fence, thus placing all of the projected switch in state property. At a point south of the new coal house the track will fork, and two spurs are planned, one to serve the east and the other the west of this building. Supt. W. B. Miser of the Jacksonville Railway & Light company returned Saturday from Springfield and St. Louis, where he made arrangements for the switch connections. Receiving instructions to proceed with the work from the state board of administration, he proceeded to St. Louis and put in the order for materials.

DANGER TO DRY FIELDS.

With the season open for most kinds of game and many hunters enjoying the sport thruout the country, farmers and landowners are becoming fearful that on account of the extraordinary dryness of the season, fires may be started which will be hard to control. Hunters are urged to exercise all possible care until the coming of the fall rains removes the present danger.
